for your company

PRECISELY AND
ON-SITE

eCl@ss is the international standard for the classification and characteristic-based description of products and services.

More than 3,500 COMPANIES

USE eCl@ss for sales, distribution, electronic catalogs, marketplaces, engineering and controlling purposes.

Learn more at www.eclass.eu/Anwendung.

WE ANSWER YOUR QUESTIONS PRECISELY AND ON-SITE:

What benefits does the eCl@ss standard offer?

Where can eCl@ss be used within a company?

What divisions or areas will be affected by a changeover?

What software decisions will be necessary?

Where can eCl@ss-experienced IT service providers be found for the implementation process?

What other e-business standards can be used along with eCl@ss?

SECURE YOUR COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE WITH

OPTIMIZED MASTER DATA.

The eCl@ss office offers an initial on-site consultation, in English or German, in which you can learn how the eCl@ss standard can benefit you and how you can optimally introduce it in your company, and in which you can ask any other questions you may have.
